

USER MANUAL

1. Starting up/ video recording

Release the button after a two-second long press, the device will be in TF Card identification state when indicator light is on. The device will begin to video record after one-time short press in standby state. During video recording, the indicator light flashes at slower speeds to hint that video recording is under way.

2. Photograph:

In standby state, after two-time short press, Indicator light is on one time, one photo is taken and saved in TF Card.

3. Modification Time:

In booting video record, there is a file named *.ime in the root directory of TF Card, its content is 2015-05-01 23:59:59. Users are able to modify dates and time in accordance with this format, and store files. The time will be the new one after another rebooting.

4. LED Instructions:

No card: the device will power off after three-time LED light flashes.

Full card: the device will power off after six-time LED light flashes

Standby: LED light is long bright.

Video recording: LED light flashes at slower speed

Low battery: the device will power off after three-time LED slow flash with special methods.

Charge: the battery is charging when LED flashes slowly, the indicator light's long bright shows a full charge.

5. Product details:

Video recording resolution: 1280*960

Photograph resolution: 1600*1200

Video recording time: 40 minutes